

POST-ELECTION SITUATION MONITORING

13.8.2022

The information inscribed herein was collected by Muungano wa Wanavijiji youth from Mukuru, Mathare, Huruma, Kiambiu, Kibera, Kware, Nakuru and Kisumu. We are aiming to collect information and report on it every day throughout the election period.

The information presented here captures the current situation and presents the picture of the current realities within the aforementioned settlements.

MATHARE 4B

- No tensions have emerged. Normality has resumed.
- Children are able to play freely outdoor.

MATHARE

- Situation is calm , residents are maintaining peace.

MUKURU KWA NJENGA

- The situation remains calm as residents await the presidential results.
- Residents continue to uphold peace.
- Businesses are open although customer turnout is low.
- Most parents express concern about prolonged school closure. Most are looking forward to the end of the tallying process and the reopening of schools.

VOTE

KIBERA

- Businesses are gradually resuming normal operations.
- Residents have grown weary of waiting for the presidential results
- Tensions that previously existed are wearing out.
- Parents are looking forward to the reopening of schools.

HURUMA

- Situation remains calm though not all are confident of the election outcomes.
- Residents are able to move freely outside and peace continues to prevail.

POST-ELECTION SITUATION MONITORING

13.8.2022

The information inscribed herein was collected by Muungano wa Wanavijiji youth from Mukuru, Mathare, Huruma, Kiambiu, Kibera, Kware, Nakuru and Kisumu. We are aiming to collect information and report on it every day throughout the election period.

The information presented here captures the current situation and presents the picture of the current realities within the aforementioned settlements.

NAKURU, PONDAMALI

- Residents remain calm as they wait for the presidential results though not all are certain of the election outcomes

KIAMBIU, SAGANA

- Situation remains peaceful. Normality has resumed

KISUMU, NYALENDA

- Situation remains calm, residents are peacefully waiting for the presidential results.

MUKURU KWA REUBEN

- Residents continue to maintain peace, as they eagerly await the presidential results.
- Residents that had previously traveled upcountry are gradually returning home.
- Businesses are operating as usual.
- Situation remains calm, though businesses are yet to fully resume normal operations

MUKURU, VIWANDANI

- Few residents are out on the streets
Residents continue to uphold peace

POST-ELECTION SITUATION MONITORING

13.8.2022

The information inscribed herein was collected by Muungano wa Wanavijiji youth from Mukuru, Mathare, Huruma, Kiambiu, Kibera, Kware, Nakuru and Kisumu. We are aiming to collect information and report on it every day throughout the election period.

The information presented here captures the current situation and presents the picture of the current realities within the aforementioned settlements.

KIBERA:LAINI SABA(PHASE3), GATWEKERA

- Situation remains calm, though not all businesses are open in Laini Saba.
- Tension remains high in Gatwekera. Businesses are not fully operational.
- Fear and anxiety also remain high among residents.

KWARE

- The residents are in a celebratory mood. Celebrations are underway for the winning Member of County Assembly (MCA)
- Residents are moving freely outside.
- Businesses have resumed normal operations.

